8. Project 52-22, Chinese Language Project. This project is in suspense until bibliographies and teaching aids used by various universities in teaching Chinese are received and evaluated by O/O. This project concerns the establishment of a course designed to provide reading competence in current Chinese newspapers and periodicals.
9. Project 52-30, Seminar on International Labor Relations. A statement of objectives and requirements for the proposed seminar has been received from the Chief, International Organization Division. A meeting has been scheduled with the IO project officer to discuss their requirements more fully. IS has advised us that it will take approximately 60 days to clear [REDACTED] who will be a consultant on the faculty and subject matter of the proposed program. However, permission will be given for O/TR representatives to discuss this project with him anytime on a one time basis if nothing classified higher than confidential is discussed. 25X1A5a1
10. Project 52-33, Space for O/TR Expansion. A joint memorandum to D/TR from Chief, S/PP and Chief, Supplies and Services Section, Support Staff prepared as reported in the last Weekly Activities Report was dropped in favor of a conference with DD/TR(S) on the possibilities of space adjustments that would involve shifts in both TR(S) and TR(G).
11. Project 52-34, Lip Readers. Awaiting review and comment on this project, proposed training in lip-reading Russian, from O/O to which it was referred by action of D/TR.
12. Project 52-35, TR(G) Bulletin. This manual of TR(G) training courses and programs is proceeding slowly. The entire job will take probably several months to complete.
